September 2023      NEWS ITEM

Dear Secretaries and strategy group members,

With the show season almost upon us we will aim to promote all of our member club shows through social media and within our magazine publication.

To enable us to do this we will require a copy of the special award list from your show as well as suitable pics of the winning birds and exhibitors.

This will hopefully help all of our shows in promoting your shows and retaining exhibitors in the future.

We can of course take information from your own Face Book pages where needed.

We are also happy for any exhibitors to forward us pics as well. The more we have to choose from the better. Good photographs of Fife canaries on the show bench seem rare today so lets see what we can do. Videos are also of course a great promotion of our shows.

Please email any show report information to Steve Dominey at;
stevescanaries@gmail.com

You may have noticed the introduction of the Fife Fancy Federation area patronage shows where we have awarded four rosettes for open competition at ten selected shows as nominated by our strategy group members. Where possible please try to support these shows as well of course as our member club shows.

The magazine is already being worked on and all articles are now in place and we would like to thank the breeders who have contributed.

We would like to encourage early booking of your breeders listing within the magazine, which would include your name and email address. ( phone number if no email). Full details are at the bottom of this newsletter.

Here is a full list of our member club shows as well as the area patronage shows;

THE FIFE FANCY FEDERATION BREEDERS LISTING

THE FIFE FANCY FEDERATION “Introduce the Fife Canary Breeders Listing”. This will be a list of Breeders of the Fife Fancy Canary along with their contact email address (or telephone if no email) and will appear within our yearly magazine.

This is designed to enable new fanciers to have the opportunity of contacting breeders in their area for new stock or advice.

By being listed you make yourself available for contact aiding the relocation of your surplus breeding stock while at the same time giving advice where requested while also agreeing for the FFF to print your details within their magazine.

Breeders will be listed in their county of residence making it easy for a newcomer to the fancy to have contact with current local breeders. This is open to all breeders and can include Champion or Novice fanciers who wish to be included within this initiative.

The listing will only be published within the FFF magazine and will require an annual payment.

The next FFF Magazine to be published early 2024 the cost of a listing would be £15 (including one payment and contact for partnerships).

For all who register prior to 1st January 2024 they will be posted a FREE copy of the magazine. (one copy per partnership).

The magazine will also be available for the cost of £13 plus £2 P&P for unlisted breeders or for additional copies.

The 2023/24 FFF magazine will have features on leading fanciers as well as an update on the winners at the 2022 FFF shows along with full results and pictures from the 2023 FFF shows.

Your listing can be confirmed by yourself when ordering your 2024 rings or paid for separately.

Please confirm to our secretary the following;

Your name, as you wish it to be listed;
ie J.Smith or John Smith.

Your email address ( phone number or email address, not both )

The address you would like the magazine posted to.

The magazine will be printed in early January and posted as soon as printed.

Payments can be made as follows;

We will finish with a word of thanks to Mr Bert Smith who has donated trophies and framed diplomas to us to be won at random shows.

All to be won outright at either FFF shows or FFF area patronage shows.

Our treasurer Barry has written to Bert to thank him along with his receipt for breeder's magazine listing.
